

Dear Class of 1960 Alumni:

It was a great year! The Pittsburgh Pirates and the New York Yankees were in the World Series, Alfred Hitchcock's Psycho terrified movie goers, Cassius Clay won the Summer Olympics and over seventy million people tuned in to watch fellow Tulane Alumnus, Howard K. Smith moderate the televised debate between Senator John F. Kennedy and Vice President Richard Nixon— all in the year 1960. You, too, had something very special take place that year.

I am so pleased to congratulate you on the special occasion of your golden anniversary celebration! Fifty years ago, you received your degree and became Tulane alumni. We would like to reminisce with you and celebrate your many achievements since that time. We have many exciting events planned for you.

On Saturday, May 15th, Tulane's Unified Commencement Ceremony will take place at the Louisiana Superdome. Doors open at 7:30 am. The ceremony begins at 9:00 am. This year, we are delighted to have Anderson Cooper as our keynote speaker. Reserved VIP seating has been arranged for your class. If you are interested in attending please contact Ashley Perkins at 504-314-2972 or aperkin@tulane.edu.
